

RED DRESS DAY is held annually on May 5th as a day of remembrance and action in honour of Missing and Murdered Indigenous women, girls and (MMIWG2S+) peoples. It was inspired by Jamie Black's red dress project, where empty red dresses symbolize the absence and loss of Indigenous women, girls and (MMIWG2S+) peoples due to colonial violence.

---

---

HRFN STAFF IS GOING TO DO A WALK TO HONOUR AND SUPPORT RED DRESS DAY. IF ANY MEMBERS WOULD LIKE TO JOIN THIS WALK.

---

---

MEETING PLACE IS THE ELDERS GAZEBO AT 11 AM AND WALK TO THE TOP OF THE HILL.

---

---

NOTE: BBQ LUNCH 1 PM AT BAND HALL